Band Concerts.

We feel like apologizing to our city guests for the non-support of Band Concerts by our citizens, the most of whom seem to imagine that somebody else beside themselves is reaping the harvest and ought to pay the bills, but there seems to be no lack of avarice in extending the glad hand to receive. We paid for the first season's concerts entirely and are glad to contribute our share at all times.

A correspondent writes as follows of a former pastor of the F. W. church, Meredith.

One of the ablest and best sermons we have listened to for years was delivered at Union church on Sunday by Rev. Mr. Bradeen of Franklin Falls. His talk was more particularly to Christians and church members. He gave them some sound advice about carrying their religion into every day life, in business affairs and dealings with their fellow men. It was a remarkable sermon—the best one we ever heard him preach—and it is being highly complimented by nearly everyone who heard it.

CONGRESSIONAL SITUATION.

Dr. Greene Has More Delegates Than all of his Opponents Combined.

Readers of the NEWS will no doubt be pleased to learn that Dr. Greene had at noon, Tuesday, 11 more delegates pledged to support him at the Republican convention than all of his opponents combined. These figures are all the more astonishing when it is considered that there are three candidates arrayed against him, and that no caucuses have yet been held in any of his strongholds.

Mark our words: Dr. Greene is the next representative of the First District in Congress.

In Manchester the feeling in favor of the doctor is growing rapidly. A resident of Manchester told the NEWS Saturday: "Two weeks ago I thought Elwell and Jewett would sweep Manchester, but the situation has changed. Elwell is now out of the race. His delegates will go to Greene, and I feel certain that the Doctor will carry more than three-fourths of the delegates."

The rumor has been going the rounds that W. N. Whiting had sold the Elm Hotel to Boston parties and that the building was to be considerably enlarged. There is no truth in the rumor, but we understand that Mr. Whiting has offered to lease the hotel for a term of three years.

There was no band concert Saturday night. Early in the evening Main street was crowded, as many were under the impression that a concert was to be given, but by 9 o'clock very few were to be seen, and business in the stores was a standstill.

It is said that in a neighboring town Oddfellowship flourishes in a superlative degree. Some time ago in connection with the order, a lodge for women was established, known as "The Rebekahs. Last week a well-to-do Oddfellow was being chaffed by several Rebekahs for not being married. He retorted by saying "I'll marry the one of you, who, by a secret vote, you may elect to be my wife." There were nine Rebekahs present, and all agreed to the proposition. Each one took great caution in preparing her ballot, and disguising her hand-writing. There were nine ballots cast, each Rebekah receiving one. As a result the Rebekahs do not speak as they pass by, and they are united in the determination that they will never speak to the horrid brother again.—Ex.

The Congregational excursion will be held Wednesday, Aug. 29th, on Steamer Maid of the Isles. All are invited and requested to take their lunch baskets. No postponement on account of bad weather. Boat will leave Meredith wharf at 9 a. m. A landing will be made for lunch. Tickets 25 cents.

AN APPEAL TO REASON.

Leading Republicans Issue a Stirring Campaign Document.

The caucus this (Wednesday) evening promises to partake of an unusually lively character. S. S. Jewett's friends have been working night and day for months, and have claimed right along that two Jewett delegates would be selected here, but their oft-reiterated statements are not substantiated by facts. Dr. Greene has many warm admirers in Meredith. They are not doing much in the line of "blowing," but it is certain that when the votes are counted it will be seen that Meredith is overwhelmingly in favor of the genial Doctor. Postmaster S. M. Estes and Town Treasurer Daniel F. Bean have issued a circular letter which has been endorsed by many leading Republicans. It reads as follows:

To the Republican Voters of Meredith:

Gentlemen:—The caucus to select Congressional delegates will be held on Wednesday evening, August 22, at the Town Hall. The delegates chosen in Meredith will undoubtedly be instructed to vote for either Dr. J. A. Greene or Hon. S. S. Jewett. Both are men of more than ordinary ability. Both have been life-long Republicans.

Mr. Jewett has worked for years in the interests of the great Republican party and its progressive principles, and has been highly honored, receiving many offices within the gift of a grateful community. Dr. Greene has also labored early and late, devoting his time and wealth to the work of defeating the aggressive opponents of the party, and he has never yet been extended one single courtesy in exchange for his unflattering devotion and many sacrifices. He now asks that his ambition to go to Congress for two years be gratified.

Mr. Jewett is yet a young man. He will lose nothing by waiting two years, but on the other hand the generous, warm-hearted Doctor will never have the courage or desire to ask recognition from his party if he is defeated now. He was in the field months before Mr. Jewett decided to enter into the contest, and is certainly entitled to the position.

Republicans of Meredith, can we afford to offend and humiliate such a talented, generous, progressive man as Dr. Greene has shown himself to be? During the past ten years he has accomplished more for the First District than all of the other candidates put together. If we send him to Congress he will be more than ever willing to contribute to the welfare of our beautiful lake region. If he is defeated who can blame him if he leaves us and takes his capital and progressive ideas elsewhere and dwells with more appreciative people.

Mr. Jewett's friends have been very active. He is without doubt fully qualified to fill the high position, but he certainly should not have stepped into the contest weeks after Dr. Greene had avowed his intentions in that direction. In 1902 he will have reached the age of only 45 years, and it will be time then for him to ask the support of the party.

Let us unite, then, and rally to the support of Dr. Greene, who has done so much for Belknap and Carroll counties. Let every lover of his home and everyone who has the future prosperity of the lake region at heart attend the caucus and select two delegates instructed to vote for Dr. Greene at the Republican convention. It is Meredith's opportunity to pay a tribute to a man who has labored unceasingly for the Republican party, and who has never said "nay" when appealed to for aid in public, private and political matters.

As a ready debater Dr. Greene is certainly without a peer in New Hampshire. Keen of instinct, sagacious, and with a mind broadened and strengthened by travel and intercourse with men of intellectual strength and activity, he will be one of the foremost figures in the next Congress. Possessed of vast wealth, he has no mercenary motives in his desire to go to Washington. He seeks the honor of representing in Congress the district in which he takes so much pride.

No sane man questions the correctness of the assertion that he will do more at Washington to direct the attention of his brother legislators and the people generally to the beauties and advantages of the lake region than any other man in the Granite State.

Gentlemen, attend the caucus and vote for Dr. J. Alonzo Greene and the best interests of Belknap county.

We, the undersigned, have been requested to present our names to the caucus as delegates pledged to support Dr. Greene. We solicit your votes and will carry out your instructions to the letter, mindful of the great honor you are conferring upon us.

Respectfully,
DANIEL F. BEAN.

Mary had a little lamb,
You do not look surprised;
Of course, you don't, for Mary has been widely advertised.
And something you may learn from this,
If you are not a clam—
You can be just as widely known
As Mary and her lamb.
Your name can be a household word,
And you be known so well
That folks will confidently buy
The things you have to sell.
And when you once have got yourself
Into the cheering rays
Of sunlight of publicity,
You bet advertising pays.

THIS PAPER | FARM JOURNAL
One Year. | Five Years.

We want to add a few hundred subscribers to our list and for a limited time will offer the Farm Journal for five years and the Meredith News for one year for $1.00.

You know what our paper is, and the Farm Journal is a gem—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful paper—full of gumption, full of sunshine, with an immense circulation among the best people everywhere. You ought to take it.

Sample copies furnished on application.

PICKING THE FARMER'S POCKET.

There is no one who suffers more from the growing domination of the Trusts than the American farmer. Within the past four years the various controlling trusts have raised the price of every necessity of farm work and the farmer's home, while there has been no corresponding increase in the price of the products which the farmer has to sell.

If the farmer buys a pound of sugar, a gallon of oil, a pound of nails, or any farm impliment, he must pay the Trust price, but when he sells his butter, potatoes, grain or other products he cannot fix the price in arbitrary trusts style, but must accept that of a competitive market on supply and demand.

The Trust system works only one way—against the American farmer.

The formation of a Trust means that competition in the industry embraced is destroyed, and the consumer placed at the mercy of the resulting monopoly. Within four years the various trusts, in order to further swell their bulging treasuries and increase the dividends on their stock, have increased the prices on the following articles which are necessities to the American Farmer: Barbed and other wire for fencing, nails, harrows, ploughs and plough points, horse rakes, mowing machines, reapers, furniture, roofing and building materials, men's clothing, dress goods, underwear, coal, glass, cutlery, tinware, wall paper, kerosene oil, leather and leather goods, salt, sugar, brooms, crockery and many other articles.

How long will the American farmer submit to the exactions of the Trusts which are a daily tax upon his pocket-book?

In spite of the predictions that the present summer would be a great season for the summer hotel business in New Hampshire, but few of the large houses in the lake region and White mountain section are full of guests as yet and of course the height of the season has already been reached. The landlords around Lake Winnipesaukee have about their usual run of patrons, but probably there are none of them but could make room for a few more guests. Up in the mountain region there are said to be many hotels with a larger number of employees than guests, and within the past two weeks we have heard of two or three good-sized hotels with forty or more table-girls chamber-maids, etc., and not a regular guest on the register. The same condition of affairs is said to prevail at several of the beach resorts in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.—Laconia Democrat.

Such is not the case in Meredith and vicinity. The boarding houses are full, and many are turned away daily. We know of many cases recently where boarders were sent to other towns to seek quarters. There may be some houses, of course, that could accomodate more, but there is no need of them being in that condition. They are afraid to spend a few cents in printing, consequently they do not attract the attention of those seeking for summer quarters.

The country is still waiting to get a final report from Mr. Sulzer as to the distribution among the widows and orphans of fallen Boers of that $18 and some odd cents left over from the $1800 collected at the Washington Pro-Boer meeting. The reason for the delay must be that Mr. Sulzer knows that the thirsty politicians on his committee could not be gotten together for a final action on the surplus, without consuming more than the amount of the surplus in champagne and cigars. The facility with which nearly $1,800 could be dined and wined away by his committee was so well demonstrated, that it would be unnecessary to further experiment on a meager $18 remnant.

A Gold Democrat of Boston, writing to the News, says: "I see by the Concord Monitor that Senator Chandler is up to his old tricks, trying to scare the Republicans of New Hampshire into electing him Senator. It is all talk and I know that neither Senator Clark or his son will spend a single cent in New Hampshire to defeat Senator Chandler. I am personally aware that they were approached on the subject by a gentleman with whom I am well acquainted, and their reply was, 'Not one dollar for the purpose.' Chandler is scheming and up to his old tricks to win, but New Hampshire has had enough of him.

Judge Henry E. Burnham and his enthusiastic supporters are not at all surprised or alarmed in regard to Senator Chandler's latest move. They knew from the start that Chandler was at his old game of bluff, and would jump on the stage when some one pulled the string. Burnham went into the fight knowing that Wm. E. Chandler would be his chief opponent. He does not fear Chandler, knowing that the rank and file of the Republican party, disgusted with the erratic senior senator's course, have decided that it is for the best interests of the party that Chandler be relegated to private life.

Chairman Jones declares that the Cotton Compress Trust, of which he is a stockholder and beneficiary, is authoized by the constitution. We believe the same claim was made by the promoters of the Tammany Ice Trust.

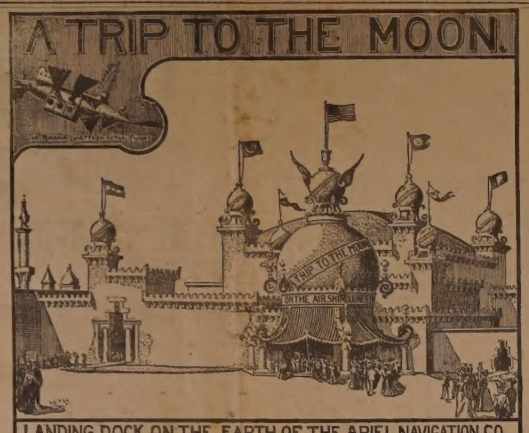
One of Mr. Pettigrew's friends has involved himself in a question of veracity with Admiral Dewey. It will not require a vast amount of time for the American people to make up their minds concerning this controversy.

No end of trouble for Hanna. According to his notion, Roosevelt talks too much and Reed talks too little.

Jules Trask has sailed from Manila and will reach New Hampshire in about six weeks. Cy Sulloway's allied forces, consisting of Knox, Topping and Palmer, will then be reinforced by one.

Bro. Clough, of the Nashua Press: Your editorial on "How Booms are Fixed," outlined the course of events pretty well, didn't it?

Can it be that Cyrus A. Sulloway's case is so hopeless that he has had to send to Manila for Jules Trask?



A TRIP TO THE MOON, PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION, BUFFALO, N.Y.

It is rumored around the lake region that the headquarters of "the Calvert Weiss Times will be removed to Laconia, with Weiss as a branch office. This will be quite a loss of mail for the little office up in Ward one, but what Tarlson loses Gilman will gain, and so Uncle Sam will be just where he was before. In the days of the good old Concord & Montreal the Weirs Times mail was quite an important factor to that little fourth-class office. By the way, a good joke is told of an ex-postmaster, who also conducted a commercial business. It appears that he had dunned the editor of the Times by a postal card sent through the mail. The editor wrote to the authorities at Washington respecting same, and in reply the editor was courteously asked for the name of that ignorant postmaster who thought he would have Uncle Sam help him collect his store bills. The only result that came from the correspondence was a joke for the good-natured editor, for he handed the official letter to the said postmaster and told him to send in his name and get his walking papers.

Recently a new mileage book has been issued by the Boston & Maine railroad, and the new books have made their appearance among the passengers. The interesting feature of the new book is the fact that upon the back cover are numbers counting by twenties to the amount of mileage in the book. The orders are that when the conductor takes out a fare he shall punch out a corresponding number from the back. Thus if a passenger goes 20 miles he will punch out 20, etc. The object of this is that the passenger may readily see the number of miles that have been taken by the conductor. The conductors state that when the newness of the innovation wears off, the arrangement will not be a bother; it will rather assist in the rapid and easy collection of fares. With the exception of the back, the books are just the same as the old ones.

Senator Chandler's political friends are claiming for him rare political virtues because, as chairman of the elections committee of the upper house, he favored the unseating of Clark of Montana on the ground of bribery. The real reason for Chandler's attitude was that Clark was a Democrat. Else why did he not oppose Hanna, against whom charges for the same offence were brought by the Ohio state senate, a Republican body, and which were backed up by the testimony of witnesses just as reliable as those appearing in the Clark case?—Concord People and Patriot.

An intelligent and careful newspaper writer declares that there are more wind mills in Nebraska than in any other state in the Union. So the Populist orators don't have things all their own way in Nebraska.

Chinese are dangerous enemies, for they are treacherous. That's why all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are dangerous. They look like DeWitt's, but instead of the all-healing witch hazel they all contain ingredients liable to irritate the skin and cause blood poisoning. For piles, injuries and skin diseases use the original and genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Geo. F. Sanborn.

The expected has happened. Chandler did not seek re-election, but if the pressure became too great for him to bear he would have to submit to the wishes of a clamoring populace. Then came the write-up in the Concord Statesman, his pocket organ. In the wake of the Statesman's anticipated avowal, Editor Cheney, of the Nashua Telegraph (who has several relatives feeding at the public crib, thanks to Chandler's pull) devotes five columns to the herculean task of proving that there is a demand for Chandler from Coos to the Philippines. And then, to cap the climax, wily Willie, with his characteristic sardonic smile, mounts the rostrum and yields gracefully but reluctantly to the will of the people. The entire program has been carried out, and it now remains for the people to transform the laughable farce into a tragedy.

The death of Senator John J. Ingalls recalls an anecdote which was once current in Washington. Someone had asked the Kansas senator if he liken Senator Chandler of New Hampshire. "Do I like Chandler?" repeated Ingalls. "Yes, I like him, but," he added, "it is an acquired taste."—Manchester Union.

THE HEALTH PROBLEM

Is much simpler than is sometimes supposed. Health depends chiefly upon perfect digestion and pure blood, and the problem is solved very readily by Hood's Sarsaparilla. You may keep well by taking it for any stomach or blood disorder. Its cures of scrofula, salt rheum, catarrh, dyspepsia, rheumatism and other diseases are numbered by th ousands.

The favorite family cathartic is Hood's Pills.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

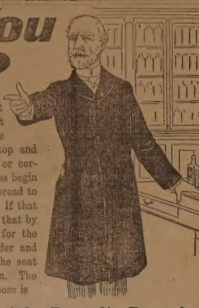
Are You Sick?



And do you understand what your real troubles are? Most people treat themselves for the wrong disease. If you will stop and think a moment, you can avoid or correct mistakes. Did your sickness begin in the stomach? Did it then spread to the Liver, Kidneys and Blood? If that is so, then you can readily see that by taking a medicine that is good for the Stomach, Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, you are sure to get at the seat of the trouble beyond question. The very best medicine for the purpose is

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

It is the pre-eminent cure for the Kidneys and Bladder. By making those vital organs well, it sifts all acids and poisons from the blood. It sets matters right in the stomach, promoting gentle, easy, natural movements of the bowels, and permanently removing the cause of Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

W. I. Miller, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., says he has used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy for a number of years, and finds it the best medicine he ever used for Liver and Kidney Troubles. He recommends it highly.

A large bottle of Favorite Remedy is sold by druggists for $1, or six bottles for $5.

TRIAL BOTTLE FREE.

Send your name and address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., mentioning this paper. You will receive by return mail, absolutely free, a trial bottle of Favorite Remedy, and a pamphlet containing valuable medical advice, such as everybody needs.

THE FAMINE IN INDIA.

BY JUSTIN E. ABBOTT OF BOMBAY.

EIGHTEEN YEARS RESIDENT IN INDIA.

A famine the most widespread and severe of this century now darkens the whole of western and central India, an area equal to New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin. Sixty million people are involved, of whom probably 10,000,000 will perish unless aided. The living skeleton is the indisputable evidence that the resources of the people are exhausted. Along the highways, in lonely passes, by stream beds that give no hope of water, weak and emaciated human beings are falling and dying by hundreds daily. Great numbers who reach relief camps are past help, and the very food they ravenously eat kills them. Children, orphaned or deserted, are picked up by scores as they wander. Terrible tales are told by eyewitnesses of these helpless little ones being devoured by dogs and jackals.

The cause of the famine is the failure of the monsoon rains from June to October last year. The farms, numbering 80 per cent of the population, were already impoverished by the famine of 1897. Expenditure of every kind was stopped; hence the laboring class and artisans have had no work. The British government is relieving the situation by gratuitously feeding the infirm, the aged, the emaciated and the children. The able-bodied are employed on cash wages in building reservoirs and irrigation works, railway embankments, roads, etc., which will greatly mitigate future famines. About 6,000,000 are now in daily receipt of official relief. Connected with the camps are hospitals where those in the extremes of emaciation are nursed back to strength. The death rate is by far the greatest in the native states where government control is least. Here, however, the government is assisting by loans of money and of the services of experienced officers. Already the authorities have spent $47,000,000.

"WHAT WILL YOU DO WITH ME?"
(Famine girl not too far gone to save.)

With the failure of crops in the famine area there began a flow of grain from other parts of India and other countries. From Burma alone there are imported in ten months 457,000 tons of rice, worth $70,000,000. Merchants have carried grain everywhere, and the price has remained fairly uniform as a cost only twice that of ordinary years. There are millions of people, however, who have no money and no work. It is these moneyless millions for whom help or death is the only alternative.

In spite of all that can be done by the government there is a vast field for the private charity now being so splendidly supplied by America, Britain and her colonies and various European countries. Doubtless the most efficient agency for distribution of this private benevolence is the body of several hundred American and European missionaries located in the famine districts, whose experienced services are freely given to this work of humanity. Missionaries supplement official efforts by assisting as many as possible to reach relief camps. Those too weak for the journey, unprotected young women, mothers with children and deserted orphans, are given refuge and tender care. Weavers and other petty artisans are supplied with work which prevents the breaking up of their homes. Industrial schools are maintained which in a few months give boys a training that makes them self supporting.

It is the duty and privilege of every one to have some share in this sacred work of humanity. Money may be sent to Brown Bros. & Co., 59 Wall street, New York, treasurers of the committee of one hundred, William E. Dodge, chairman, and Dr. Leander T. Chamberlain, executive director, by whom it will be cabled promptly to the responsible and representative American-Indian relief committee, under the chairmanship of United States Consul William H. Foe, at Bombay, with the veteran missionary, Robert A. Hume, as executive secretary. This committee aids and co-operates with our heroic fellow citizens of all denominations in the famine districts.

The New York committee of one hundred on Indian famine relief co-operates with committees of the same name in Boston, New Haven, Baltimore, Washington, Indianapolis and other cities, each of which has charge of the work in its own section. The committee announces that, thanks to the hearty assistance of the press of the United States and the express companies, which forward gifts without charge, it has received contributions amounting to $100,000. On receipt of a postal addressed "Committee of One Hundred, 73 Bible House, New York," supplies of illustrated literature are sent without charge and expressage free. The help of individuals, clubs, lodges, labor unions, employers, proprietors of hotels, churches, Sunday schools, young people's societies, King's Daughters, etc., is sought in distributing this literature and organizing relief movements. Two cents a day will save life, and $2 will provide work for a famished person until the next harvest.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes, this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Morrison's drug store.

Many from surrounding towns were in town Sunday to witness the baptism at Winona lake. The candidates baptized were Orville P. Smith, Frank E. Barker, Herman P. Smith, Mrs. Evelyne J. Burleigh, Mrs. Mary E. Gray, Mrs. Lilla I. Smith, Miss Ethel M. McIntire and Miss Abbie I. Cummings.

Millions will be spent in politics this year. We can't keep the campaign going without money any more than we can keep the body vigorous without food. Dyspeptics used to starve themselves. Now Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. It radically cures stomach troubles. Geo. F. Sanborn.

While no official figures of the census are of course given out, it is stated that the population of New Hampshire will be approximately 410,000. Manchester has about 57,000, Berlin makes the largest gain, it being credited with about 3000 in 1890, but now has over 8000. Laconia shrinks from 11,000 to 8,000. Nashua has 23,000 and Concord 19,000. It is understood that Littletown will gain some 800 from 10 years ago, while Lancaster will lose a trifle.

The wolf in the fable put on sheep's clothing because if he travelled on his own reputation he couldn't accomplish his purpose. Counterfeiters of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their worthless salves on their merits, so they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's. Look out for them. Take only DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures piles and all skin diseases. Geo. F. Sanborn.

William C. Banfill of Lakeport is the proud possessor of an American eagle which he captured recently. The bird is an elegant specimen and measures over six feet from tip to tip of wings. The eagle was found struggling in the water of Lake Winnipisecogee near Mark Island and was taken alive by Mr. Banfill.

Mothers indorse it, children like it, old folks use it. We refer to One Minute Cough Cure. It will quickly cure all throat and lung troubles. Geo. F. Sanborn.

An ajourned meeting of the creditors of the firm of O'Shea Brothers of Laconia, which has recently become financially embarrassed, was held in the rooms of the Merchants association in Boston, Aug. 14, and at this time a satisfactory settlement was effected between the various parties interested.

In India, the land of famine, thousands die because they cannot obtain food. In America, the land of plenty many suffer and die because they cannot digest the food they eat. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat it instantly relieves and radically cures all stomach troubles. Geo. F. Sanborn.

Fifty thousand young salmon from the Laconia fish hatchery have just been deposited in Lake Winnipesaukee. These fish were hatched in the Laconia hatchery and then fed on chopped liver during the present season by Supt. Clement until they have grown to be about two inches long and are probably big enough and lively enough to take care of themselves in the waters of the lake to much better advantage than if they had been deposited when first hatched according to the usual custom in this state.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Horace W. Clark, of Lisbon, N.H., but for many years a resident of Meredith and an employe of M. S. & L. Co., died Sunday morning at the residence of Geo. K. James, Jr., on Stevens avenue. Mr. Clark, accompanied by a lady who was soon to become his wife, arrived from Lisbon Saturday evening. He had been in ill health since spring, but determined to attend the reunion of the Veterans at The Weirs, having missed but one of the notable gatherings. Soon after his arrival here, feeling indisposed, he retired to his room and was attended to until a late hour, when he fell asleep. About 6 o'clock a.m. a visit was made to the apartment, and it was found that he was dead. Death must have been painless. He simply went to sleep and passed away to that great unknown beyond.

Deceased was 57 years of age, and a veteran of the Civil War. He served in Co. H., 12th N. H. Regt., and was severely wounded at the battle of Chancellorsville, May 3rd, 1862. A bullet went through his body, and the wound was so severe that he was discharged from the army, being unfit for active service afterwards. He leaves a son, Leonard, who resides on Stevens avenue, and a daughter, who was married last June and lives in Maine.

There are also three brothers, two of them, Charles and Frank, being residents of Meredith, and the other of Lakeport.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Geo. K. James, Jr. Rev. E. G. Eastman officiated, and the remains were interred in Plymouth street cemetery.

The members of Geo. S. Cram Post, G.A.R., attended the funeral in a body, and a number of Lisbon people also witnessed the last sad rites. The floral offerings were numerous.

A number of guests arrived at Pine Hill cottage Saturday.

Geo. F. Sanborn has something to say about band concerts in his ad this week.

Miss Ethel A. Burnell, ticket agent at the station, is suffering with a painful abscess on her arm.

T. Val Sellars, of the Lawrence, Mass., Sun, is building an extensive addition to his pretty cottage, Camp Overlook, near Waukewan lake.

A very curious incident is connected with the death of Horace W. Clark, particulars of which will be found in another column. About two years ago Mrs. Geo. K. James, who resides in a tenement belonging to deceased, had her fortune told in Lisbon. The prognosticator informed Mrs. James that she would shortly move to a small town and that the owner of the tenement she was to occupy would come to the house in question and die suddenly. Many of the events foretold have transpired, and Saturday night when Mr. Clark arrived from Lisbon his condition brought to Mrs. James' mind the strange prophecy of the fortune-teller. She mentioned the fact to some of the neighbors, and on the following morning, after Mr. Clark was found dead in bed, the strange incident became the subject of much comment.

Letter to N. C. Prescott.

MEREDITH, N. H.

Dear Sir: You can make our paint. It would cost you more than to buy it; because we work by machinery, you by hand. We grind and mix; you only mix. Your paint would not be the same, because mere mixing isn't enough.

We use a great deal of zinc. You can't do that; it is hard to mix.

A streak of lead and a streak of zinc is not lead and zinc. The lead chalks off and the zinc peels off. Lead and zinc stays on.

It is grinding together, intimate mixing, that makes Devoe lead and zinc good paint. You can't do that; and couldn't afford it, even if you could do it.

We have been making paint 145 years. We make a good deal; can afford to provide the machinery for it. We are your helper, not your hinderer.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

WAS A STREET ARAB.

The Romantic History of Alaska's Progressive Governor.

By His Own Energy He Acquired Education, Fortune and Honor—Once Was a New York Waif Without a Home.

In the summer of 1859 27 homeless children were shipped from Randall's island, New York, to the west, where they were to find homes. Two of the most ragged of the waifs were John Brady and a lad named Burke.

Now John G. Brady, governor of Alaska, is in the east. While in New York he was registered at the Fifth Avenue hotel. Burke is not a governor now, but he has been. For two years he was chief executive of North Dakota.

Gov. Brady has the title of "reverend," which he earned by hard work for the money it cost to take him through Yale and the Union Theological seminary. He was sent to Alaska as a missionary. He was appointed governor of Alaska by President McKinley after he had been in that colony 19 years as preacher, teacher and merchant. He is fairly wealthy and has a wife and five children at his home in Sitka.

Gov. Brady, says the St. Louis Republic, does not attempt to disclaim the lowliness of his early life, and talks freely of it, explaining that his success may prove an incentive to others who are in the unfortunate condition of his own childhood.

His father was a drunken longshoreman. His mother died when he was a child. At eight years of age he had sold newspapers, shined shoes, run errands, carried satchels and haunted the East river water front in the hope of picking up an odd job now and then.

Sometimes he found a lodging in the Newsboys' home. As often as not he slept curled up in a box or in some dark corner in Chatham square. One night a policeman roused him from his bed in a packing case, and John says confessed that he was hungry and badly in need of a meal. His father had married again, and John says found little favor with the stepmother. So they sent him, with a boatload of other waifs, to Randall's island.

On the island Johnny made friends rapidly. Among others with whom he formed a fast boyhood friendship was a homeless lad named Burke. In the summer of 1859 the Children's Aid society arranged to ship a cargo of boys to the west, where homes had been secured for them on farms. Brady and Burke were among those selected to go.

When the carload reached Indiana Brady was consigned to the home of John Green, a lawyer of Tipton, who had asked for the "ugliest, raggedest and most friendless boy in the lot." Johnny then became "Jack." He went to the village school, applied himself to his studies and afterwards took the preparatory course for college in the Wareland academy.

All the time he was in school he was earning what he could to help pay his way. Mr. Green had destined "Jack" for the law, but the boy decided that his mission was the ministry, and went to Yale. He helped make both ends meet by chopping wood, making fires, ringing the school bell and doing any other manual labor that offered a recompense. Later he earned something as a tutor.

After graduation he worked his way through the Union Theological seminary. He never missed an opportunity to talk encouragingly to boys whose lot was as forlorn as his had been. It was through the influence of Dr. Sheldon Jackson that Mr. Brady went to Alaska as a missionary. He was a pioneer there, not only among the Indians, and in that section is still frequently referred to as Rev. John Brady.

As business developed Brady opened a store at Sitka. He became interested in the Sitka Trading company and soon acquired a one-third interest. He proved to be a shrewd business man, but never relinquished his active interest in missionary work.

The Voracity of Spiders.

Commenting on the amount which a spider actually consumed during 24 hours, Sir J. Lubbock says: "At a similar rate a human being would be weighing 160 pounds will require a whole fat steer for breakfast, a steer and five sheep for dinner, and for supper two bullocks, eight sheep and four hogs, and just before retiring nearly four barrels of fresh fish."

City Controls Advertisements.

The advertisements on the cars, omnibuses and tickets of the London county council tramways brought in nearly $40,000 during 1899. Of that the council netted about $30,000, the balance going in commission. For the future an arrangement has been made to pay the advertising agent only 20 per cent. commission.
